SECTION 12 Station 3 13

Date March 5, 1933

Subject (in full) Enquiry from Canadian Pacific Company re: D. Lichinsky

Made by D.S. Prokofiev

Forwarded by 20/3/33 21

With reference to the letter dated February 24, 1933 from the local office of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company on the subject of one Dave Lichinsky, enquiries show that this individual is at present residing at House No 18, Lane 50, Ward Road.

Dave Lichinsky is a Russian Jew, 61 years of age, native of Mostovoe (Merson Province, South Russia), widower, merchant by occupation. He arrived in Shanghai from Odessa in 1905. He was the proprietor of the "Criterion House" Hotel at No 11 Seward Road for some time during the Great War (1914-18). At present he is engaged in commercial pursuits on a small scale as a commission agent.

Lichinsky, during the course of an interview, stated that about two years ago he received a letter from his brother A. Lichinsky in Calgary, Alta., to which he replied. Since that time, however, he has not heard from his brother.

Another brother and a relation of his are now in the U.S.S.R., but he has not heard from them since 1928.

Dear Sirs,

I have a brother, Dave Lichinsky, whom I have not heard from for eight years and am trying to get in touch with him. The last I heard from him was when he owned the Criterion House, 11 Seward Road, Shanghai.

I would certainly appreciate it if you could give me some information concerning him. Also may I trouble you to forward the enclosed letter to some Jewish information bureau that might be able to give me some information.

I hope this is not troubling you too much and thank you for your kindness.

Yours sincerely,

A. Litchinsky (Sgd)
